Cup Starring Regulations

1. Any player who plays in the NW Senior Cup will be deemed as 'cup-tied' for lower grade competition, exceptions to this rule are as follows.
2. If the player is U15 they may play for any other team within their club, (dependent on their unstarred status) despite having played in the Senior Cup, however once they play in another 'league' cup competition they may not play in a 'league' cup competition for a lower graded team within their club
3. Players who play in the Irish Senior Cup, Irish National Cup, Sammy Jeffrey Cup or NW T20 Cups will not be deemed as being 'cup tied' for a lower graded team
4. The Nedd will be given an exception that all of their players will remain eligible for their Q1 League Cup competition
5. Clubs are reminded that where they are able to play unstarred players in cup competitions they may play on the maximum number allowed from the unstarred allocation, this also takes into account those who have become unstarred due to the 'totting up' process

General

1. Upon completing 5 league games at Senior Level a player not listed on the 1st XI team list will automatically become a further unstarred player.
2. Upon completing 8 league matches for a team which they are not listed, the player will be automatically added to the unstarred list of the respective team as necessary
3. No player who is eligible to play U15 cricket in the Derry Midweek Cricket League Junior Leagues shall be starred, they may however be an unstarred player, limiting which teams they may play for.

Starring Committee

1. The Starring Committee shall consist of 5 members, where necessary members may be co-opted.
2. Regarding holding meetings and starring decisions 3 members shall form a quorum
3. The Starring Committee shall be a sub-committee of the Cricket Operations Committee and will actively seek to see that each team is as fairly represented as possible at the various levels of cricket played
4. The lists sent in by clubs as described in 'Starring 2020' shall be reviewed and verified by the Starring Committee. The starring committee shall reserve the right to make changes as they feel necessary to lists as submitted by clubs, any changes will be notified via email to the club secretary concerned
5. The starring committee will continue to review lists as necessary throughout the season, making changes if felt necessary
6. Clubs may request changes to their starring lists, these must be made via email to David Bradley – NW Administrator – by the Tuesday preceding the next set of weekend fixtures they will affect. These requests will be considered by the starring committee and the requesting club notified of the decision by the Thursday of the same week, the starring committee reserve the right to refuse requests as necessary.
